

Reading a Map: The American Navy in British Waters

As commander of the Ranger and the Bonhomme Richard, John Paul Jones set out to capture or sink enemy ships and to raid enemy ports. The following map details two of his missions in British waters. Study the map, and then answer the questions below.

1. What nation in Europe did Jones use as a home base? _____
2. What British ship did the Ranger sink? _____
3. Where did the Ranger capture the Drake and the Patience? _____
4. What ships did the Bonhomme Richard capture? _____

5. In what body of water did these captures take place? _____
6. In what body of water was the Bonhomme Richard sunk? _____
7. Based on this map, why might the actions of the American navy be considered daring?

